Wine Hunter, The Mattinson, Campbell

$45 - 9781743791271 - Hardback

Australia's first great winemaker was a Frenchman. As a 24 year old, in 1921, he walked onto a hillside vineyard in the Hunter Valley north-west of Sydney and in a hard, hot climate set about growing and crafting wines that became renowned as Australia's first great wines. He made these wines without electricity and with bare bones equipment. And even though his winery, Mount Pleasant, never once turned a profit during his 30 year struggle, what Maurice O'Shea achieved on that hillside is one of the miracles of wine.
